

GUIDELINES FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

EMBICON 2017 –

PEDIATRICIANS AND THE SUPERSPECIALITIES :

A Pediatrician today is actively involved in the diagnosis, investigations, referral and follow-up management of almost all medical conditions under the purview of the “Superspecialists”.

For the first time in the history of Conferences, EMBICON 2017 announces participation for the Practicing Pediatricians, to share their Original Observational Research studies. (NOT RELATED TO DRUG TRIALS AND INTERVENTIONS).

The original research study does not require to have the Ethical Committee Clearance / permission for Oral Paper Presentation in a Conference. (However, Ethical clearance is mandatory prior to any publication).

Research study can be based on General Pediatrics and/or with any superspecialty, e.g. cases of Neurology, Nephrology, Hematology, Endocrinology, etc.

Therefore , dear Colleagues, make the best of this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to share your academic experiences on the Conferential platform.

Abstracts are invited from Practising Pediatricians and students pursuing Postgraduation/ Fellowships, in the prescribed format, before 31st October 2017. Email to – embicon2017@gmail.com
